An Act to establish the Tanganyika Law Society and to provide for other related matters.

[1st January, 1955]

Ord. No. 30 of 1954
Act No. 42 of 1961

PART I
PRELIMINARY (ss 1-2)

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Tanganyika Law Society Act.

2. Interpretation

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

"advocate" has the same meaning as in the Advocates Act *;

"Council" means the council established under the provisions of section 15;

"former society" means the society known as the Tanzania Law Society existing in Tanganyika immediately before the enactment of this Act;

"practising certificate" means a practising certificate issued under the provisions of section 35 of the Advocates Act *;

"Society" means the society established by section 3;

"special resolution" means a resolution passed by a majority of not less than two-thirds of any members of the Society who, being entitled so to do, vote in person or by proxy at a general meeting of the Society, duly convened with full notice of the intention to propose that resolution.

PART II
ESTABLISHMENT (ss 3-5)

3. Establishment of Tanganyika Law Society

There is hereby established a body incorporated by the name of the Tanganyika Law Society with perpetual succession and a common seal, with power to sue and be sued in its corporate name.

4. Objects

The objects for which the Society is established are—

- (a) to maintain and improve the standards of conduct and learning of the legal profession in Tanzania;
- (b) to facilitate the acquisition of legal knowledge by members of the legal

- profession and others;
- (c) to assist the Government and the Courts in all matters affecting legislation, and the administration and practice of the law in Tanzania;
 - (d) to represent, protect and assist members of the legal profession in Tanzania as regards conditions of practice and otherwise;
 - (e) to protect and assist the public in Tanzania in all matters touching, ancillary or incidental to the law;
 - (f) to acquire, hold, develop or dispose of properties of all kinds, whether movable or immovable, and to derive capital or income from them, for all or any of the foregoing objects;
 - (g) to raise or borrow money for all or any of the foregoing objects in any manner and upon any security which may from time to time be determined by the Society;
 - (h) to invest and deal with moneys of the Society not immediately required in any manner which may from time to time be determined by the Society;
 - (i) to do all other things which are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the foregoing objects or any of them.

5. Dissolution and vesting of assets of Former Society

All property and assets of the Former Society shall be and are hereby, as at the date of commencement of this Act, vested in the Society and so soon as all formalities connected with the transfer of all the property and assets to the Society shall be declared by the president and the secretary of the Former Society to have been completed, the Former Society shall automatically be dissolved.

PART III MEMBERSHIP (ss 6-14)

6. Membership

The membership of the Society shall consist of the following—

- (a) all advocates who are members of the Society by reason of the provisions of section 7;
- (b) all persons admitted to membership of the Society under section 8;
- (c) all persons elected as honorary members of the Society under section 9.

7. Practising advocate to be member of society

(1) Every advocate who has in force a practising certificate shall without election, admission or appointment, become a member of the Society from the date on which the practising certificate is issued to him and be subject to any provision of the law for the time being affecting that member:

Provided that every advocate to whom a practising certificate is issued before the first day of February of each year shall, if he was an advocate on the first day of January of that year, be deemed to have been a member of the Society as from the first day of January of that year.

(2) Every advocate who becomes a member of the Society under subsection (1) shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (3), remain a member until the end of the current year.

(3) When an advocate who is a member of the Society by reason of the provisions of subsection (1) has his name, whether at his own request or otherwise, removed from the Roll, he shall immediately cease to be a member of the Society.

(4) An advocate who is a member of the Society by reason of the provisions of subsection (1) and who is suspended from practice shall not be entitled during the period of that suspension to any of the rights and privileges of membership.

8. Qualifications for membership

(1) Any of the following persons who applies for membership of the Society in the prescribed manner shall be admitted as a member of the Society, that is to say—

- (a) the Attorney-General, Parliamentary Draftsman and State Attorneys, for the time being resident in Tanzania, and any person duly qualified holding office in the Attorney-General's Department;
- (b) any person duly qualified holding office in a local government authority;
- (c) the Registrar-General, Administrator-General, Public Trustee, Official Receiver, Land Officer and any person duly qualified holding office in the department of the Registrar-General, Administrator-General, Official Receiver or the Land Office;
- (d) [Omitted under Cap. 4 s. 7.]
- (e) any other legally qualified person, for the time being resident in the Tanzania, as may from time to time be determined by special resolution:

Provided that subject to the provisions of section 7 no person who has been expelled from the membership of the Society shall after the expulsion be admitted again as a member without the authority of a special resolution.

(2) For the purposes of this section "person duly qualified" means a person holding any of the qualifications set out in paragraphs (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) of subsection (1) of section 8 of the Advocates Act *.

9. Honorary membership

The Council may elect as honorary members of the Society such persons as it may think fit, either for life or for any period which the Council may in any case deem appropriate.

10. Annual subscription

The members of the Society shall pay into the funds of the Society any annual subscription which may from time to time be prescribed:

Provided that no honorary member shall be liable to pay a subscription.

11. No entrance fee payable

No entrance fee shall be payable by any person on becoming a member of the Society.

12. Resignation

No member of the Society shall resign or be permitted to resign his membership at any time while he is entitled to practise as an advocate, but, save as aforesaid, and subject to section 7, any member of the Society may resign his membership in any manner which may be prescribed.

13. Expulsion

Any member of the Society, other than an honorary member, may be expelled from the society in any manner, and upon any grounds, after being given a reasonable opportunity to answer all allegations made against him, which may from time to time be prescribed:

Provided that no member of the Society who is entitled to practise as an advocate shall be expelled from the Society at any time while entitled so to practise.

14. Members ceasing to be qualified for membership

Any member of the Society, other than an honorary member, who ceases to be qualified for membership shall automatically cease to be a member.

PART IV

COUNCIL (ss 15-18)

15. Constitution of the Council For the proper management of the affairs of the Society, there shall be a Council consisting of a President, a Vice-President, a Treasurer and seven other persons; all of whom shall be members of the Society and elected annually by the Society in a general meeting.

16. Powers of the Council

Except as otherwise expressly provided by this Act, or by any regulations made under this Act, the Council may exercise all the powers of the Society; and no regulations made under this Act shall invalidate any prior act of the Council which would have been valid if those regulations had not been made.

17. Committees and delegation

The Council may from time to time appoint Committees consisting of members of the Society; and may, except as otherwise expressly provided by this Act or by any regulations made under this Act, delegate to any Committee all or any of the powers of the Council.

18. Procedure
