- (4) All records relating to funds used as election expenses shall be audited by the Controller and Auditor-General in accordance with the provisions of the Political Parties Act.

[Cap. 258]

20. Failure to disclose funds

- (1) A political party which, and every candidate who is required under the provisions of this Act to disclose the amount and sources of funds intended to be used as election expenses fails to disclose such funds, shall, in the absence of any reasonable explanation, render itself or himself liable for disqualification from participating in the election.
- (2) Where after hearing a presentation by a political party or the candidate concerned, the Registrar is satisfied that such a political party or a candidate is liable for disqualification from participating in the election, the Registrar shall file an objection with the Director of elections.
- (3) Upon receipt of an objection filed by the Registrar, the National Electoral Commission may issue an order disqualifying the political party or the candidate.

- (4) Without prejudice to the preceding provisions of this section, the Attorney General, a person who was a candidate, voter or a political party which sponsored a candidate, may file an election petition challenging the nomination of a candidate by a political party or election of a candidate who contravened the requirement for disclosure of funds under this Act.

Part V – Prohibited practices

21. Unfair conducts

- (1) During the nomination process, election campaign or election, an act of prohibited practice shall be committed by—
- (a) every person who, before or during the campaign period, directly or indirectly, by any other person on his behalf, gives, lends or agrees to give or to lend, or offers, promises, or promises to procure or to endeavor to procure, any money or valuable consideration to or for any voter or to or for any person on behalf of any voter or to or for any other person, in order to induce any voter to vote or to refrain from voting, or corruptly does any such act, on account of such voter having voted or refrained from voting at any nomination process or election;
 - (b) every person who directly or indirectly, by himself, his agent or by his political party on his behalf, gives or procures or agrees to give or to procure or to endeavor to procure, any office, place or employment, to or for any voter, or to or for any person on behalf of any voter, or to or for any other person, in order to induce such voter to vote or to refrain from voting, or corruptly does any such act, on account of such voter having voted or refrained from voting at any election;
 - (c) every person who, before or during the election campaigns period directly or indirectly, by himself, his agent or by his political party on his behalf, makes any gift, loan, offer, promise, procurement, or agreement to or for any person in order to induce such person to procure or to endeavor to procure, the nomination of a person as a Councillor, a candidate by a political party, the election of any person as a Member of Parliament or the President or the vote of any voter at any nomination process or election;
 - (d) every person who, upon or in consequence of any such gift, loan, offer, promise, procurement or agreement, procures or engages, promises or endeavors to procure the nomination of a person as a candidate by a political party, the return of any person as a Councillor, a Member of Parliament, the President or the vote of any voter at nomination process or an election;
 - (e) every person who, for purposes of promoting or furthering a nomination process or an election campaign, or during the nomination or campaign, or during the nomination or campaign period, advances or pays, or causes to be paid, any money to or for the use of any other person, with the intent that such money, or any part of that money, shall be expended in bribery at any nomination process or election or who knowingly pays, or causes to be paid, any money to any person in discharge or repayment of any money wholly or in part expended in bribery at any nomination process or election;
 - (f) every voter who, before or during the nomination process or election campaign period directly or indirectly, by himself or by any other person on his behalf, receives, agrees to receive or contracts for any money, gift, loan or valuable consideration, office place or employment for himself or for any other person, for voting or agreeing to vote or for refraining from or agreeing to refrain from voting at any nomination process or election; and
 - (g) every person who, after any nomination or election, directly or indirectly, by himself or by any other person on his behalf, receives any money or valuable consideration on account of any person having voted or refrained from voting, or having induced any other person to vote or refrain from voting at any nomination process or election.

- (2) Where it is alleged that the act constituting prohibited practice was committed by an agent or any other person on behalf of the candidate, it shall be a defense for the candidate if he proves that it was committed without his knowledge, consent or approval or that of his agent.
- (3) For the purposes of this section an act or transaction shall not be deemed to constitute prohibited practice if it is proved to have been designed to advance the interests of community fund raising, self-help, self-reliance or social welfare projects within the constituency and to have been done before the nomination process or election campaign, as the case may be.

22. Unconscionable funding

The following persons shall be deemed to commit unconscionable funding within the meaning of this Act:

- (a) every person who corruptly, by himself or by any other person, on his behalf, either before, during or after the nomination process or election directly or indirectly gives, or provides, or pays, wholly or in part, the expense of giving or providing food, drink, entertainment or provisions to or for any person, for the purpose of influencing that person, or any other person, to vote or to refrain from voting at such nomination process or election; and
- (b) every person who corruptly accepts or takes any such food, drink, entertainment or provision.

23. Conveyance of voters

- (1) No payment or contract for payment shall, for the purpose of promoting or procuring the nomination or election of a candidate at any nomination process or election, be made—
 - (a) on account of the conveyance of voters to or from the poll station, whether for the hiring of vehicle, vessels or animal of transport of any kind whatsoever, or for railways fares, or otherwise; or
 - (b) to or with a voter on account for the use of any house, land, building, or premises for the exhibition of any address, bill, account of the exhibition of any address, bill or notice.
- (2) Subject to such exception as may be allowed in pursuance of this Act, if any payment is made in contravention of this section either before, during, or after an election, the person making such payment or contract shall commit an act of prohibited practice, and any person receiving such payment or being a party to any such contract, knowing it to be in contravention of this section commits an act of prohibited practice.
- (3) A person commits an act of prohibited practice who let, lend or employ for the purpose of conveyance of voters to and from the polling station any vehicle, vessel or animal of transport of any kind which he keeps or uses for the purpose of letting out for hire, and if he lets, lends or employs such vehicle, vessel or animal of transport knowing that it is intended to be used for the conveyance of voters to and from the polling station.
- (4) A person who hires, borrows, or uses for the purpose of conveyance of voters to and from the polling station any vehicle, vessel or animal transport of any kind which knowingly that the owner thereof is prohibited by subsection (3) to let, lend, or employ for that purpose commits an act of prohibited practice.
- (5) Nothing in subsection (3) or (4) shall prevent a vehicle, vessel or animal of transport of any kind being let to, or hired, employed, or used by a voter or several voters at their joint cost for the purpose of being conveyed to or from the polling station.
- (6) Notwithstanding anything in the preceding provisions of this section—
 - (a) where it is the ordinary business of a voter as an advertising agent to exhibit for payment bills and advertisement, a payment to or contract with such voter, if made in the ordinary course of business shall not be deemed to be a prohibited practice within the meaning of this section; and

- (b) where voters are unable at an election to reach their polling station from their place of residence without crossing the sea, a branch or its arm or river, means may be provided for conveying such voters equally to their polling station or to enable them to cross in order to reach their polling station.
- (7) For the purpose of paragraph (b) of subsection (6), it shall be the responsibility of the Government to ensure the means of conveyance is always made available equally to all such voters who wish to avail themselves to their polling station.

24. Disqualification of candidates

- (1) Every political party shall undertake and complete the nomination process within twenty one days before the nomination day.
- (2) Any candidate who, by himself, his agent or by his political party which commits an act amounting to a prohibited practice as stipulated in this Part shall himself or itself liable for disqualification from participation in the nomination process or election.
- (3) For the purpose of sub-section (2), a candidate shall not be liable for prohibited practices committed by a political party without consent or connivance of the candidate, whether expressly or impliedly.
- (4) Where the Registrar is satisfied that the candidate who, by himself, his agent or his political party has committed a prohibited practice for which that candidate or political party is liable for disqualification from participation in the nomination process, he shall, in the case of—
 - (a) a candidate, notify the political party concerned to nominate another candidate in place of the candidate; and
 - (c) a political party, notify the political party concerned that it may be barred from sponsoring a candidate in a ward, constituency or Presidential election.

[Please note: numbering as in original]

- (5) Where, during the nomination process, a political party whose candidate is liable for disqualification has failed to nominate another candidate in lieu of the candidate who is liable for disqualification, the Registrar shall inform Director of Election that the political party concerned which sponsored that candidate in a contested election in a relevant ward, constituency or Presidential election may be disqualified.
- (6) A person who has been nominated by virtue of the operation of subsection (4) shall be subjected to all procedures relating to nomination of candidates as stipulated under the National Elections Act or the Local Authority (Elections) Act.
- (7) Where a candidate, or his agent or his political party commits an act which amounts to a prohibited practice in respect of which no action was taken, the Attorney General may institute criminal proceedings or an election petition against that candidate.
- (8) Without prejudice to the provisions of subsection (7), a person who commits an act of prohibited practice shall, irrespective of whether that person has won or lost in the election, be proceeded against in accordance with the provisions of Chapters VII and VIII of the National Elections Act, the Local Authority (Elections) Act or the Prevention and Combating of Corruption Act.

[Caps 313 and 292]

25. Prohibition of prohibited practices prior to nomination process

The Prohibition of prohibited practices stipulated in this Part shall extend and have the same effect to a person who, by pronouncement or conduct, has shown an intention to participate in the nomination process.

Part VI – Offences and penalties
